Summer Camps

June 1-5th and August 3-7th Ninja Camp

Young ninjas will train in the art of the invisible warrior as they practice with kid-safe swords, nunchuks, blowguns, ninja stars and more! Ninjas engage in awesome martial arts games and epic battles in this action-packed camp!

June 8-12th Wizarding World

Young wizards will train in powerful martial arts skills, all while experimenting with magical potions and exciting chemical reactions. Young wizards will combine science with karate in this unique and engaging camp that is sure to pack an intense level of wow!

June 15-19th and July 13-17th Video Game Live

Calling all gamers, this action-packed camp brings your favorite video games to life. Battle your way through Super Mario World, drop into the world of Minecraft, and test your survival skills in Fortnite. Don't sit around playing video games this summer when you can jump into the action and live the game!

July 6-10th Ninja Warrior

Young ninja warriors will train on challenging obstacle courses, strengthen their skills on our circuit training course, and test their speed against the clock. This camp is also packed full of martial arts games and challenges your child will love!

July 20-24th Star Wars

In a galaxy far, far away (in Olde Town Arvada), young warriors will train with Jedi weapons (including foam "light sabers"), master Jedi combat skills and agility training, and learn movie-worthy battle skills while fighting against the forces of evil. Practice stage combat techniques in epic battles!

August 10-14th Super Hero

Whether it's PJ Masks, Power Rangers, or Avengers, this camp will train the next generation of super heroes. Campers create their own super hero persona, write their own comic book and then train in epic super hero techniques sure to take down the bad guys. Then film heroic battles of good vs evil.

Spring Break Camp March 23-27th : Make a Martial Arts Movie

Hollywood is calling. Join us over Spring Break for an amazing camp experience where young warriors will get to write, direct, and star in their own martial arts movie! Our young movie stars will then share their masterpiece at the Premier and leave with their personal copy of the movie. Plus, this camp also includes exciting games and battles galore!
